4 completely diverse in citizenship and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.

5 2. The court has original jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because plaintiff assert claims that 6 arise under the laws of the United States.

7 3. The court has supplemental jurisdiction over plaintiff's state-law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367
8 because those claims are so related to plaintiff's federal-question claims that they form part of the same 9 case or controversy.

10 4. This court has personal jurisdiction over "Uber" at least by virtue of "Uber" having conducted and 11 presently conducting business in this district and/or having committed one or more acts of violation in 12 this district and by virtue of the plaintiff being the resident of this district at all given times of the 13 violations in this complaint.

14 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

15 Plaintiff(s), Abdul Mohammed currently residing in the City of Naperville, in the State of Illinois, by way 16 of complaint against the defendants says:

17 1. On or about August 03, 2014, plaintiff and the defendants entered into a contract for plaintiff's service
18 as an employee at $50.00/Hour and as a partner in equity of Uber Technologies Inc.

19 2. The defendants informed the plaintiff that equity will be a big one on par with other defendant's 20 employee namely Ryan Graves.

21 3. The defendants showed the plaintiff a tweet from CEO and Co-Founder of "Uber", Travis Kalanick, in 22 which he advertised a job posting for a Start-Up and the tweet promised a "Big Equity".

23 4. The defendants paid neither the promised $50.00/Hour nor the equity to the plaintiff.

24 5. The plaintiff upon not receiving the promised $50.00/Hour and the promised equity in Uber Technologies Inc. wanted to leave Uber's employment. However, the defendants held him in their employment with false promises of paying all the back wages and equity.

6. The defendants made false promises to the plaintiff of paying back wages and the equity repeatedly.

7. The defendants by means of a scheme, plan and pattern of false promises of paying back wages and the equity forced the plaintiff into forced labor, involuntary servitude and peonage.

8. The plaintiff kept working for the defendants in hope of recovering back wages as the plaintiff had purchased a car on monthly payments in order to work for the defendants.

9. The plaintiff also incurred other costs such as gas, tolls and vehicle repairs in order to work and keep working for the defendants.

1 10. The defendants by indulging in fraud and false promises pushed the plaintiff into debt and made it
2 infeasible for him to leave the employment.

3 11. In this manner, the defendants obtained forced labor, involuntary servitude and peonage from the 4 plaintiff.

5 12. The defendants by means of a scheme, plan and pattern made the plaintiff to perform labor services
6 and made it infeasible for the plaintiff to leave the job.

7 13. The defendants also tried to bind the plaintiff in an auto loan contract at an exorbitant interest rate
8 in order to inflict more peonage on the plaintiff by scheme, plan and pattern.

9 14. During his employment, the plaintiff was engaged in Concerted Protected Activity in order to 10 improve working conditions.

11 15. The defendants denied the plaintiff the right to engage in Concerted Protected Activity and in turn 12 violated National Labor Relations Act.

13 16. The defendants forced the plaintiff to provide transportation service to the defendants' clients who 14 were smoking illegal drugs and narcotics whilst riding in the plaintiff's vehicle.

15 17. The plaintiff was forced to provide service to the to the defendants clients who were smoking illegal 16 drugs and narcotics.

17 18. When the plaintiff protested against providing service to the defendants' clients who were smoking 18 illegal drugs and narcotics whilst in the plaintiff's vehicle.

19 19. The defendants also discriminated against the plaintiff in promoting him when other employees 20 similarly situated were promoted.

21 20. The defendants retaliated against the plaintiff for filing discrimination charge with Illinois
22 Department of Human Rights and for Concerted Protected Activity and terminated his employment.

23 21. The plaintiff is not asserting his employment discrimination claims, which are pending with Illinois
24 Department of Human Rights and City of Chicago Commission on Human Relations and the violation of NLRA claim with NLRB in this complaint as those charges are pending with the concerned tribunals.

22.The defendants employed and continue to employ almost one million undocumented immigrants and Non-immigrants who are not authorized to work in United States against the protest of the plaintiff and in violation of the 8 U.S. Code § 1324(a) and in turn violated the RICO Act.

23. The defendants are currently recruiting undocumented immigrants and Non-immigrants who are not authorized to work in United States in hundreds of thousands.

1 24. The defendants offered the plaintiff a fee ranging from $500.00 to $1,000.00 per undocumented
2 immigrant or a Non-immigrant who is not authorized to work in United States.

3 25. The defendants informed the plaintiff about this offer verbally as well as via numerous emails and 4 text messages.

5 26. The defendants informed the plaintiff that, "Uber" is aware of the fact that majority if its employees
6 are the undocumented immigrants and Non-immigrants who are not authorized to work in United 7 States.

8 27. The defendants informed the plaintiff that only requirements for the undocumented immigrants and 9 Non-immigrants who are not authorized to work in United States to work for "Uber" would be a Social 10 Security Number, Driver's License and a Bank Account.

11 28. The defendants engaged in a pattern of racketeering by knowingly hiring almost one million 12 undocumented immigrants and Non-immigrants who are not authorized to work in United States and 13 brought down the wages and working conditions of United States Citizens, Permanent Resident Aliens
14 and other legal immigrants including the plaintiff who are authorized to work in United States.

15 29. By indulging in racketeering the defendants caused great harm to United States Citizens, Permanent 16 Resident Aliens and other legal immigrant including the plaintiff who are authorized to work in United 17 States.

18 30. The intentional harm inflicted on the United States Citizens, Permanent Resident Aliens and other
19 legal immigrants including the plaintiff who are authorized to work in United States is financial, physical 20 and emotional in nature.

21 31. The defendants not only hired undocumented immigrants and Non-immigrants who are not 22 authorized to work in United States but they also paid them a fee ranging from $500.00 to $1000.00 to 23 recruit more undocumented immigrants and Non-immigrants who are not authorized to work in United 24 States.

32. The fee of $500.00 to $1000.00 was paid by the defendants for each undocumented immigrant and Non-immigrant who is not authorized to work in United States.

33. The defendant's managers and executives were regularly informed that the drivers they are hiring were undocumented immigrants and Non-immigrants who are not authorized to work in United States.

34. The defendants also advertised the driver jobs in other countries. The defendants advertised job postings in local newspapers in Cuba, Mexico, South America, Central America, India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Nepal and rest of the world.

35. The plaintiff has the documented evidence of the defendant's job postings in foreign newspapers in various foreign languages.

1 36. These job postings in local newspapers in foreign countries in various foreign languages acted as
2 "Concrete Employment Offers" and in turn enticed these foreign nationals to enter into United States
3 of America by land, by sea or by air.

4 37. These foreign nationals encouraged and enticed by the available unskilled jobs in United States,
5 entered into United States by applying and receiving Non-Immigrant Visas at various United States
6 Missions across the globe.

7 38. Many of the foreign nationals entered into United States of America without inspection by sea or 8 by land. The undocumented immigrants and Non-immigrants who are not authorized to work in United 9 States, who were already present in United States or who had recently arrived were transported within 10 United States of America to underserved areas with a promise of extra bonus.

11 39. These "Extra Bonus" acted as the vehicle for these undocumented immigrants and Non-immigrants 12 who are not authorized to work in United States to move within United States.

13 40. The defendants knowingly and with intent to defraud solicited, recruited and hired foreign nationals
14 from outside the United States and inside the United States.

15 41. The defendants also caused other persons to solicit, recruit and hire undocumented immigrants and 16 Non-immigrants who are not authorized to work in United States, who were already present in United 17 States and foreign nationals from outside the United States for purposes of employment by means of 18 materially false or fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises regarding that employment.

19 42. The defendants violated the following State and Federal Laws and Statutes.

- 20 • Peonage (18 U.S. Code § 1581)
- 21 • Forced Labor (18 U.S. Code § 1589)
- 22 • Involuntary Servitude (18 U.S. Code § 1584)

- Violation of the Thirteenth Amendment
- Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (RICO) Act (8 U.S. Code §§ 1961 -1968)
- Breach of The Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing

- Violation of The Affordable Care Act
- Illinois Workers Compensation Act (820 ILCS 305/1)
- Intentional Infliction Emotional Distress

EFFECTS OF ABUSE ON PLAINTIFF'S PHYSICAL AND MENTAL HEALTH

The workplace abuse which plaintiff suffered at "Uber" produced a wide range of physical and psychological problems in plaintiff.

- Psychological Harm-: As a victim of workplace abuse at "Uber" the plaintiff experienced higher levels of general stress and anxiety, symptoms including insomnia, constant worry, daily sadness, irritability, extreme fatigue, lack of interest in things that interested the plaintiff in the past, lack of motivation, poor appetite, crying spells, nightmares, feelings of hopelessness and worthlessness. Abuse at "Uber" resulted in acute mental health symptoms and diagnosable disorders. The plaintiff suffered with mental health problems such as depression, anxiety, mood disorders, dissociation and post-traumatic symptoms. The plaintiff developed symptoms compatible with the diagnosis of post-traumatic disorder, somatization and depression. Working in stressful conditions produced chronic trauma, which consisted of multiple stressful events that accumulated over time and combined with toxic environment—multiplied the maladaptive effects of the traumatic events. Significantly, personality changes occurred in the plaintiff when these traumatic experiences were added to the cumulative effect of repeated psychological abuse and deprivation. The plaintiff's personal and emotional growth was stunned when his identity was organized around internal distress, fear and sense of fragility.
- Social Harm-: The experience of abuse at "Uber" adversely affected the plaintiff's interpersonal relationship. The workplace abuse at "Uber" resulted in depletion of plaintiff's cognitive and physical resources whilst coping with the stress of the abuse, leaving little resources available for use when interacting outside the workplace environment. This lead to the plaintiff's decreased quality of social relationships and conflict in intimate relationship, resulting in aggravation of plaintiff's low-testosterone condition. The aggravation of plaintiff's low-testosterone condition has resulted in plaintiff being dependent on steroids in the form of Intra-Muscular Testosterone Shots.

INVOLUNTARY SERVITUDE (18 U.S.CODE § 1584)

1. Plaintiff repeats all the allegations set forth in the previous paragraphs of this complaint as if fully set forth herein at length.
2. Involuntary Servitude provisions, 18 U.S.C. Section 1584 provides that recruiting, harboring, transporting, providing, or obtaining by any means, a person for labor or services in violation of laws prohibiting slavery, involuntary servitude, peonage, bondage, and forced labor, shall subject the defendants to fines.
3. As set forth above, defendants knowingly recruited and obtained plaintiff to provide labor and services to each of the defendants without fair and reasonable compensation, prevailing wage, other benefits promised and upon psychological threat and coercion to the plaintiff.
4. The defendants and each of them knowingly held the plaintiff and obtained his services by means of a scheme, plan and pattern of false promises of paying back wages and equity.

1 5. The defendants by stealing the plaintiff's wages compelled and forced the plaintiff to stay in employment of the defendants against his wishes.

2 6. The defendant used the "Wage Theft" as a tool to force the plaintiff into involuntary servitude.

3 7. The defendants forced the plaintiff in not just the involuntary servitude, but forced the plaintiff to provide transportation service to the defendants' clients who were smoking illegal drugs and narcotics whilst riding in the plaintiff's vehicle.

4 8. The plaintiff was forced by the defendants to provide service to the defendants' clients who were smoking illegal drugs and narcotics. When the plaintiff protested against providing service to the defendants' clients who were smoking illegal drugs and narcotics whilst in the plaintiff's vehicle, the defendants terminated the plaintiff's employment.

5 5) The defendants also obtained the plaintiff's involuntary servitude by recklessly putting his life in great danger.

6 6) As a direct and proximate result of the defendants' conduct, the plaintiff has been caused to suffer a loss of wages and benefits, severe emotional distress and mental anguish, and such other damages, all to his detriment.

7 WHEREFORE, the plaintiff demands judgment against these defendants, jointly, severally, and in the alternative pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 1584 for compensatory damages, punitive damages, costs and such other relief as the court may deem just and proper.

12 3. The defendants and each of them knowingly held the plaintiff and obtained his services by means of a scheme, plan and pattern of false promises of paying back wages and the equity.

13 4. The defendants by stealing the plaintiff's wages and equity compelled and forced the plaintiff to stay in employment of the defendants against his wishes.

14 5. The defendant used the "Wage Theft" and theft of equity as a tool to force the plaintiff into forced labor.

15 6. The defendants forced the plaintiff in not only the forced labor but forced the plaintiff to provide transportation service to the defendants' clients who were smoking illegal drugs and narcotics whilst riding in the plaintiff's vehicle.

16 7. The plaintiff was forced by the defendants to provide service to the defendants' clients who were smoking illegal drugs and narcotics. When the plaintiff protested against providing service to the defendants clients who were smoking illegal drugs and narcotics whilst in the plaintiff's vehicle, the defendants terminated the plaintiff's employment.

17 7) The defendants also obtained the plaintiff's forced labor by recklessly putting his life in great danger.

1 8) The defendants and each of them knowingly obtained plaintiff's services by their scheme plan and 2 pattern intended to cause the plaintiff to believe that if he did not perform the labor and services, which the defendants demanded, he would suffer serious financial and/or psychological harm.

3 9) The defendants knowingly obtained plaintiff's services by means of the abuse or threatened abuse of financial loss and/or psychological harm. The defendants used scheme, plan and pattern and forced him 4 to work without paying him compensation both as promised in the oral and written.

5 10) As a direct and proximate result of the defendants conduct aforementioned, the plaintiff has suffered damages both in the form of lost past wages, benefits promised, severe emotional distress and 6 mental anguish, and such other economic and compensatory damages, all to his detriment.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff demands judgment pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1589 for compensatory damages,
7 punitive damages, costs, and such other relief as the court may deem just and proper.

8 COUNT-3

9 PEONAGE (18 U.S. CODE § 1581)

10 1. Plaintiff repeats all the allegations set forth in the previous paragraphs of this complaint as if fully set forth herein at length.

11 2. The defendants forced the plaintiff to purchase an expensive car as a condition of beginning employment and in turn pushed the plaintiff into peonage by not paying him the wages, which were 12 agreed and promised by the defendants.

13 3. The defendants by stealing the plaintiff's wages and equity compelled and forced the plaintiff to stay in employment of the defendants against his wishes.

14 4. The defendant used the "Wage Theft" and theft of equity as a tool to force the plaintiff into peonage.

15 5. The defendants forced the plaintiff in not only peonage but forced the plaintiff to provide transportation service to the defendants' clients who were smoking illegal drugs and narcotics whilst 16 riding in the plaintiff's vehicle.

17 6. The plaintiff was forced by the defendants to provide service to the defendants' clients who were smoking illegal drugs and narcotics. When the plaintiff protested against providing service to the 18 defendants clients who were dealing in illegal drugs and narcotics whilst in the plaintiff's vehicle, the defendants terminated the plaintiff's employment.

19 7. The defendants also obtained the plaintiff's peonage by recklessly putting his life in great danger.

20 8. The defendants pushed the plaintiff into peonage by means of a scheme, plan and pattern.

21 9. The defendants by committing the preceding acts has violated 18 U.S. CODE § 1581.

22 10. The defendants by violating the 18 U.S. CODE § 1581, has caused grievous financial, physical and mental injury to the plaintiff.

a loss of wages and benefits, severe emotional distress and mental anguish, and such other damages, 24 all to his detriment.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff demands judgment against the defendants jointly, severally, and in the alternative for damages, compensatory damages, punitive damages, costs and such other relief as the court may deem just and proper.

COUNT-4

BREACH OF CONTRACT

1. Plaintiff repeats all the allegations set forth in the previous paragraphs of this complaint as if fully set forth herein at length.

2. The defendants entered into a written and oral contract for employment in or around August 3 of 2014 wherein the defendants agreed to employ plaintiff as a Ride-Share Driver with an hourly pay of $50.00/hour and equity.

3. In addition, the defendants orally and expressly agreed that the plaintiff would be compensated as aforementioned for his services he performed for the defendants as a Ride-Share Driver and that he would have reasonable working conditions.

4. Plaintiff had duly performed each condition, covenant, and promise and obligation required on his part to be performed in accordance with the terms and conditions of the written and/or oral contract between the parties.

5. The plaintiff performed actual work for the defendants for a period of ten months.

6. The defendants and each of them breached their contract with the plaintiff by not making the promised payments required by both the written and oral contract.

7. As a direct and proximate result of the defendant's breach of contract, the plaintiff has suffered economic and compensatory damages, all to his detriment.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff demands judgment against all the defendants jointly, severally, and in the alternative for damages, compensatory damages, punitive damages, costs and such other relief as the court may deem just and proper.
